

Child Protection Practitioner Forum Events- 'Neglect and grounds for Referral to SCRA'

Sharing information is a crucial part of any frontline practitioners' job when working with children, young people and their families. In this session we will explore the issues together and dispel myths around Neglect and referrals to the SCRA to build on good practice.

Aim of Session:

This training session will provide:

- A Brief overview of the Role of the Reporter;
- An Explanation of the Reporter Decision Making Framework;
- An Understanding of Where Neglect fits within Grounds for Referral;
- How Referral Agencies and Report Writers Can Assist Reporters.

Outcome:

Attendees will have a knowledge and understanding of the role of the Reporter and their decision making; where neglect fits within Grounds for Referral, what evidential requirements are needed; when and how to refer to the Reporter for consideration of compulsory measures of supervision; and how referral agencies and reports writers can assist reporters.

Who should attend:

This session is for staff from all agencies – Falkirk Council, Police Scotland, NHS Forth valley, Reporters, Children's Panel Members and Third Sector partners
