

DENNY DEMENTIA CAFÉ

WEDNESDAYS 1-3PM

DENNY LIBRARY

A weekly group open to people living with dementia, their families and friends - Come along for a chat, cake and to meet other people in the same situation.

The group is run by Outside the Box and is free to attend, though donations towards refreshments are appreciated.

If you cannot attend safely on your own, please come along with someone to support you.

The purpose of the group is to offer people the chance to enjoy some company, share experiences and support each other. It's a friendly welcoming group and we hope you can join!

For more information please contact Ania Sandland:
