

Are you a working parent?

Are you aiming for the next step on the career ladder?

A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a dark blue patterned top, is smiling and looking towards a young boy. The boy is seen from the back of his head and is holding a white document or folder. The background is a plain, light grey color.

Do you need help to do this?

ETU may be able to help

Are you in any of these eligible groups?

Lone parent

Parent with 3+ children

Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic parent

Youngest child under 1 year

Parent aged under 25

Disabled parent

Parental Employment Support Fund

Parental Employment Support Fund (PESF) is voluntary. It offers person-centred help for parents to look at their barriers to progressing in work.

Help with improving skills or work experience

Support to gain a qualification

This might include

Money advice

Motivational support

Action Plan

Working with an advisor, you will agree an Action Plan. This sets out the steps aimed at helping you with certificates, qualifications, applying for a new job or progressing in your workplace.

As part of this plan, you will find out more about the things you are good at, as well as agreeing those areas where you need a bit more support.

These might include:

To be eligible for PESF, you need to be in one of the target groups, have the right to live and work in the UK and need some in-work support.

If this is you, or anyone you know, then contact the Employment and Training Unit to find out more.

Tel: 01324 50 44 08

Email: etu@falkirk.gov.uk