COSCA Certificate in Counselling Skills from Stirling on Fridays from 8th January 2021

This is an advanced communication course, which teaches empathic listening skills to groups of up to 12 adult learners. Courses are made up of 4 Modules = 120 hours in total run over 8-9 months.

Who is it for?

- This course is for adult learners, keen to practice empathic listening skills, for example:
- Parents; Carers, Police Officers, Teachers or NHS Staff;
- Key Workers, Social Workers, Helpline Listeners or Graduates.

What is required?

- The course requires full commitment to engage in weekly group learning activities.
- Each module is made up of 30 hours and 6 training days per Module.
- Successful completion involves skills practice, written assignments & 120 hours of training.
- With regular breaks every 6 weeks between modules.

When

- From Friday 8th January 2021, 10:00am – 4:30pm for 6 Saturdays per Module
- This group will run from January 2021 to mid-September 2021 by group consensus.

Where

Due to COVID-19 measures, training may probably begin via video conference meetings initially, with plans to continue at Therapy Train Stirling CIC, Lower Ground Floor, 12 Melville Terrace, Stirling, FK8 2NE, when Health Protection Scotland advise that it is safe to resume group training indoors.

COST

£365 per Module, paid in advance.
