

If you are interested in coming along please phone Justine Nicolson on 07880 790337/ 01324 564278 or jnicolson@alzscot.org to book your place.

Session 1 - 18th May at 10 am (online)

Whisky and Water!

Rosebank Distillery and the Lock Keeper's Cottage

Archaeology Scotland has carried out archaeological digs next to the Rosebank Distillery on Camelon Road in Falkirk. We'll explore the site of the Lock Keeper's Cottage, next to the Rosebank Distillery, and think about the history of this part of the town. We'll also discuss drinks produced, and drunk, in Falkirk in the past... and today!

If you are interested in coming along please phone Justine Nicolson on 07880 790337/ 01324 564278 or jnicolson@alzscot.org

Session 2 - 15th June at 10am (online)

How does your garden grow?

The Pineapple, Airth

<https://www.nts.org.uk/visit/places/the-pineapple>

A number of archaeological digs have taken place at The Pineapple near Airth. The digs uncovered fascinating evidence linked to gardening and food in the past.

Session 3 - 20th July

Pineapple Picnic

The Pineapple - field trip and picnic? (Covid and other logistics permitting)